

America's Greatest Circus Coming to Broken Bow Sept. 11.

RINGLING BROS.

World's Greatest Shows,

THE INVINCIBLE MONARCH OF THE AMUSEMENT WORLD.

1000 People, 65 Railroad Cars, 500 Horses,
300 Performers, 5 Big Arenas, 1 Aerial Enclave,
1/4 Mile Race Track, 25 Elephants, 100 Dens and Cages,
12 Acres of Tents, $3,700,000 Invested, $7,400 Daily Expenses.

A MAJESTIC, IMPOSING, IDEAL, PATRIOTIC SPECTACLE, THE ONLY EXHIBITION IN THE WORLD REPRESENTING
Last Days of the Century
OR, THE LIGHT OF LIBERTY!
OVER 1000 PEOPLE AND HUNDREDS OF HORSES IN THE CAST.
61-HORSE ACT.
61 FINE BRED HORSES IN ONE RING, AT ONE TIME, PERFORMED BY ONE MAN.
LOCKHART'S FAMOUS ACROBATIC DANCING, PLAY-ACTING. FAMOUS COMEDIANS.

THE BIG
20 TON
BRASS
BAND

LOUDER THAN A THOUSAND HUMAN BAND MEN

A NEW GREAT FEATURE.

HERR SOUDER'S WONDROFUL FUNNY ELEPHANT BRASS BAND.

BIG NEW FREE PARADE IN 30 SECTIONS EVERY MORNING AT 10 O'CLOCK.

ONE 50c TICKET ADMITS TO EVERYTHING. CHILDREN, UNDER 12 YEARS OLD, HALF PRICE. SPECIAL Excursions ON ALL Railroads.

TWO COMPLETE EXHIBITIONS DAILY, AT 2 AND 8 P. M. DOORS OPEN ONE HOUR EARLIER.

THE ACKNOWLEDGED GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH.

WILL EXHIBIT AT
BROKEN BOW, MONDAY, SEPT. 11.

Reserved numbered seats and admissions show day, without any advance in price, at Moore's Post Office book store.

U. S. Land Office,

JAMES WHITEHEAD, Register
F. H. YOUNG, Receiver

PUBLIC LAND SALE.

Land Office at Broken Bow, Neb., July 29th 1899.
Notice is hereby given that, in pursuance of instructions from the Commissioner of the General Land Office, under authority vested in him by Section 2455, U. S. Rev. Stat., as amended by the act of Congress, approved Feb. 26th, 1893, we will proceed to offer at public sale on the 7th day of Sept., 1899, next, at this office, the following tract of land, to-wit: sec 34 sw 1/4 sec 24 tp 18 n., R. 23 W.

Land Office at Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 28, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before Register and Receiver at Broken Bow, Neb., on Sept. 2nd, 1899, viz:

Land Office at Broken Bow, Neb., July 27, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before Register and Receiver at Broken Bow, Neb., on Sept. 7th, 1899, viz:

Land Office at Broken Bow, Neb., July 27, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before Register and Receiver at Broken Bow, Neb., on Sept. 7th, 1899, viz:

U. S. Land Office, Broken Bow, Neb., Aug. 29th, 1899.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before Register and Receiver at Broken Bow, Neb., on October 7th, 1899, viz:

Notice to Non-Resident Defendants.

The Globe Investment Company, of Boston, Massachusetts, and Henry A. Wyman, receiver of the Globe Investment Company, of Boston, Massachusetts, will take notice that on the 14th day of August, 1899, Cornelius C. Cuyler and Benjamin Graham, plaintiffs, filed their petition in the district court, in and for Custer county, Nebraska, against the said B. defendants, impleaded with Clinton C. Silver and Gertrude M. Silver, and others, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage deed, executed by the defendants, Clinton C. Silver and Gertrude M. Silver, to the Globe Investment Co., conveying the northwest quarter of section thirty (30), in township sixteen (16) north, of range twenty-five (25), west of the 6th Principal Meridian, in Nebraska, to secure the payment of a certain promissory note, or first mortgage bond, dated on the 11th day of November, 1897, for the sum of $900.00, due and payable on the first day of November, 1899, with interest at 10 per cent per annum. That there is now due upon said principal note the sum of $900.00, with interest thereon at 10 per cent per annum, from the 1st day of November, 1897, to the 1st day of November, 1899; one coupon interest note, falling due and payable on the first day of May, 1898, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the said first day of May, 1898, to the first day of November, 1898; and $38.27, with interest thereon from the 28th day of August, 1898, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, for taxes paid on said premises for the years 1896, 1897 and 1898. Plaintiffs pray for the foreclosure of said mortgage deed, and that they be appointed receiver of the same, and that said premises be sold to satisfy the amount found due. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 15th day of October, 1899. Dated this 14th day of August, 1899.

James Ledwich, Attorney for Plaintiff.

In the district court of Custer county, Nebraska, vs.

William H. Coons, et al., Defendants.

The Globe Investment Company and Henry A. Wyman, receiver of said Globe Investment Company, non-resident defendants; You and each of you will take notice that on the 15th day of August, 1899, George W. Alanson, plaintiff herein filed his petition in the district court of Custer county, Nebraska, against William H. Coons, Elizabeth Coons, Globe Investment Co., and Henry A. Wyman, receiver of said Globe Investment Company, and other defendants, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage, dated October 1st, 1892, executed by the defendants, William H. Coons and Elizabeth Coons, to the Globe Investment Company, conveying the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter, and the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter, of section twelve (12), and the west half of the southeast quarter, of section one (1), all in township fifteen (15) north, eighth (8) north, of range twenty-five (25) west of the 6th Principal Meridian, in Nebraska; said mortgage was given to secure the payment of a certain interest coupon bond, or promissory note, dated October 1st, 1892, for the sum of six hundred dollars ($600) due and payable October 1st, 1897, and drawing interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum from date until maturity, and at ten per cent per annum thereafter. That said mortgage and the same are owned by this plaintiff; that there is now due upon said mortgage indebtedness the following sums:

Upon principal note, $600.00, with 10 per cent interest from October 1st, 1897.

Upon coupon No. 6, $21.00, with 10 per cent interest from October 1st, 1895.

Upon coupon No. 7, $21.00, with 10 per cent interest from April 1st, 1896.

Upon coupon No. 8, $21.00, with 10 per cent interest from April 1st, 1897.

Upon coupon No. 9, $21.00, with 10 per cent interest from April 1st, 1897.

Also $84.21 paid by plaintiff as taxes upon said real estate, together with 10 per cent interest thereon. Said petition alleges that you, the said Globe Investment Company and Henry A. Wyman, its receiver, claim to have a mortgage upon said real estate, which mortgage plaintiff alleges is second and junior to his mortgage. Plaintiff prays in said petition that said mortgage may be foreclosed, and that it be decreed that the defendants be required to pay the amount due thereon within twenty (20) days from the date of said decree, and in default of said payment that said premises be decreed to be sold upon execution, and the proceeds of said sale to be applied upon said mortgage indebtedness. You and each of you are required to answer said petition on or before Monday, the 25th day of September, 1899. Dated this 15th day of August, 1899.

By C. L. GUTTERSON, His Attorney.

Notice to Non-Resident Defendants.

The Saint Joseph Loan and Trust Company, of St. Joseph, Mo., and the Phoenix Insurance Co., of Brooklyn, New York, defendants, will take notice that on the 13th day of August, 1899, the main of Ann A. Coburn filed her petition in the district court of Custer county, Nebraska, against the defendants, impleaded with John W. Taylor and Jennie M. Taylor, et al., the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage deed, executed by the defendants, John W. Taylor and Jennie M. Taylor, to the Saint Joseph Loan and Trust Company, of St. Joseph, Mo., conveying the northeast quarter (NE 1/4) of section thirty (30), in township fourteen (14), north, of range eighteen (18), west of the 6th principal meridian, in Nebraska, to secure the payment of a certain mortgage real estate promissory note with interest thereon, said note being dated on the first day of October, 1888, for the sum of $700.00, due and payable on the first day of October, 1895. That there is now due upon said note and mortgage the following sums, to-wit: On the principal note the sum of $700.00, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the first day of October, 1888, to the first day of October, 1895; one coupon interest note in the sum of $24.50, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the first day of April, 1895, for which said several sums, with interest, 1895; one coupon interest note in the sum of $24.50, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the first day of October, 1895, for which said several sums, with interest, 1895; one coupon interest note in the sum of $24.50, with interest thereon at the rate of ten per cent per annum from the 1st day of October, 1895, for which said several sums, with interest, 1895; and $31.35, with interest thereon from the 28th day of August, 1898, at the rate of ten per cent per annum, for taxes paid on said premises for the years 1896, 1897 and 1898. Plaintiffs pray for the foreclosure of said mortgage deed, and that they be appointed receiver of the same, and that said premises be sold to satisfy the amount found due. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 15th day of October, 1899. Dated this 23rd day of August, 1899.

James Ledwich, Attorney for Plaintiff.

NOTICE OF ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

In the matter of the estate of Adaline D. Johnson, deceased. In pursuance of an order of the Honorable H. M. Sullivan, Judge of the District Court of Custer County, Nebraska, on Saturday the 19th day of Aug., 1899, the real estate hereinafter described, to-wit: the east front door of the court house, in the city of Broken Bow, Custer county, Nebraska, on Saturday the 19th day of Aug., 1899, at 2 o'clock p. m., at public vendue to the highest bidder upon the following terms: One-half cash and one-half in notes, the notes to be paid in full to draw real estate to-wit: Lot No. 2 in block 195, 30 in J. P. Gandy's addition to Broken Bow, Nebraska. Said sale will remain open until one hour.

J. M. KIMBERLING, Administrator of the estate of Adaline D. Johnson, deceased.

Notice to Non-Resident.

Charles L. Long, The Globe Investment Co., of Boston, Massachusetts, and Henry A. Wyman, receiver of the Globe Investment Company, of Boston, Massachusetts, will take notice that on the 15th day of July 1899, Cornelius C. Cuyler and Benjamin Graham, plaintiffs, filed their petition in the district court of Custer county, Nebraska, against the said B. defendants, impleaded with others, the object and prayer of which is to foreclose a certain mortgage executed by the defendant Charles L. Long, in favor of the defendant the Globe Investment Co., and by it assigned to said plaintiffs, conveying the sw 1/4 of Sec. 4 in township 16 N., of range 25 west of the 6th p. m., in said county, to secure the payment of one certain note in the sum of $500 and interest due and payable on the first day of Dec. 1896. There is now due on said note and mortgage the sum of $500, on said note with interest thereon at 10 cent per annum from Dec. first 1895, and $40.37 with interest thereon from July 17th 1896, at 10 cent per annum, for which sums with interest plaintiff prays for a decree that defendant be required to pay the same, or that said premises be sold to satisfy the amount found due. You are required to answer said petition on or before the 15th day of Sept., 1899.

CORNELIUS C. CUYLER & BENJ. GRAHAM, PL'YS.

By James Lewich his Att'y.

GOOD ENOUGH TO TAKE.

The finest quality of loaf sugar is used in the manufacture of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and the roots used in its preparation give it a flavor similar to that of maple syrup, making it very pleasant to take. As a medicine for the cure of coughs, colds, lagrippe, croup and whooping cough it is unequalled by any other. It always cures, and cures quickly. For sale by all druggists.

HYPO.

Having and threshing on hand. Willis McClure has been adjudged insane and taken to Norfolk.
Hot and dry. Ripening corn prematurely; it will be light and chaffy.
C. G. Knipfield sports a new buggy and harness. All he needs now is a driver.
Mr. Garland Lewis commenced a three months term of school at No. 141 Monday.
B. C. Emphel has gone to Lincoln, to take a course in Lincoln business college.
I. D. Shuman has black leg in his herd, seven having died. He will try the vaccine more.
Miss Greer, of Callaway, commenced a three months term of school at No. 240, Monday.
Rattlesnakes are numerous. John Province has killed eight and his brother two; A. F. McIntosh, four; M. Conley a large one near his door and Bobby, the mailcarrier, several, but says they are not as plentiful as last year.

Lower Deer Creek.

Mr. Smith, of Sumner, was out on Deer Creek Sunday.
Miss Myrtle Williams is working at the hotel in Sumner.
Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morgan were visitors on Deer Creek last Friday.
A number of families expect to attend the reception at Anselby Tuesday.
Joseph Pigman commenced school again this morning, at the Ross school house.
Isaac Mason and family visited our Sunday school last Sunday. It seemed like old times to see their smiling faces among us once more.
H. W. George, W. A. George and wife and daughter all went to Kearney last Thursday. Miss Abbie will remain away to attend school.
Our promise of such fine corn has all blown away, and corn will not yield anything near like people thought it would a month ago. There is lots of it being cut up for fodder.
Mr. Daugherty and family started for Butler county last Saturday to visit relatives in Kansas. They expect to be gone three or four weeks. We hope Mr. Daugherty's health will be much improved when they return.

Westerville.

Fergus Emerson and wife rejoice in the advent of a daughter. This being the firstborn, of course the most important part-engage in the Emerson family.
The political pot is beginning to boil. There are only two pots left in Westerville. One is a candidate for office and the other is the committee of the belly-aching party. Let, how the night are fallen! The years are not so far back but that we could count them on our fingers when the pot party swept everything in sight. In Westerville, but since the tax collecting day, since which struck our peaceful village last Friday, nothing but curses deep and loud are heard on every side.

Isaac Clark, our miller, has left Westerville without a mill, having purchased the Anselmo flouring mill, and will turn his capital and energy to the building up of that community. In preference to replacing the mill dam here, which was washed out June 24. There is a fine opening here for a good miller, little or no capital being required. Mr. Clark is a level headed fellow, and having a fair knowledge of the milling business would do well and in a few years accumulate a competency at Westerville. Deer creek now flows unobscured to its confluence with the river without turning a wheel. Tals is not as it should be.

Mason City.

Miss Mattie Burrows returned to her home in Palmyra.
L. J. Smith was a Broken Bow visitor the last of the week.
The camp meeting at Round Grove closed Sunday evening.
Dr. Mullens, of Broken Bow, was in town Tuesday morning.
Bert Chase and family, of Long City, were visiting with relatives at Anselby Tuesday.
Dick Martin and S. A. Gates shipped a car load each of cattle the first of the week.
Mrs. A. Dady went to Iowa, Monday morning, for an extended visit with relatives.
Ambrose Buckley, the boss bronco breaker, is visiting with relatives in this place.
The corn in this part of the county looks rather the worse for ware owing to the hot winds.
Several loads of melons have been in town of late and Jamaica ginger has gone up 10 per cent.
The band has recently been re-enforced by the addition of Joe Smith, who plays the slide trombone.
Andrew Weaver claims he is the watermelon king of the county, having raised 5 or 6 loads this year.
School commenced Monday with Prof. Gunn in the upper school and Miss Lattie Spencer in the primary department.
Everybody is making preparations to take in the reception at Anselby Tuesday. The band will be in attendance and contest for the prize.
Who are you going to vote for, sheriff? Why for Talbot of course, and so is the average citizen whose head is put on the right way.
Henry L. Shuman, who has been buying horses in and around Mason for the last 10 days, succeeded in buying a car load of horses, which he shipped Monday.
The following is a partial list of those who attended the reception at Anselby: Mrs. H. C. Chase, Mrs. F. H. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. John Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Warrington, Miss E. O. O'Connell, Miss E. M. Anderson, Miss E. M. McAlleister, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Robertson, and the band and hose company.

CATTLE FOR SALE.—At all times

on my ranch six miles southwest of Broken Bow. JESSE GANDY.

RINGLING DAY NEAR.

The Visit of the World's Greatest Shows Rapidly Approaching.

Ringling day is almost here. The coming of Ringling Brothers' famous big circus next Monday, Sept. 11th, is the one subject of conversation. Expectation has been aroused as never before. The public sentiment is in favor of seeing a great show, and it will not be disappointed. The parade which inaugurates the circus may be said to start the Ringling day. And it is indeed a wonderful exhibition. Imagine a vast hippodrome pavilion, with a seat for 18,000 persons. Fill this great amphitheater with rings and stages and a bewildering maze of aerial apparatus. Surround the rings with a great fourth mile racing track, and fill rings and stages, truck and mid-air with endless array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comedians, Souder's sensational elephant brass band and Marchand's pugilistic proboscideans; an international array of acrobats and acrobatics, riders and riders, all attired in the most beautiful silks and cloth of gold, and each vying with the other in what horse exhibit, and daring—imagine all this, and you will still fall far short of the reality. The performance opens with the beautiful patriotic spectacle, "The Last Days of the Century," a most interesting and a moving show. The arena surprises that follow include O'Brien's famous sixty-one horse act; three troupes of remarkably trained elephants embracing Lockhart's elephant comed